

Anshul Travel Agency - Business Insights & Executive Analysis

Executive Summary

10,000 customers generated 4,277 purchases (42.8%). The remaining 57.2% represent the biggest growth opportunity.

Business Analysis

Leisure travel is the strongest revenue segment. High-income and salaried customers generate the highest purchase volume. Online booking dominates all channels, making digital marketing the highest ROI investment. Flight is the preferred transport mode, supporting premium travel products. Family customers form a large share of demand, while premium customers lead international purchases. Chennai is the best-performing city, followed by Delhi, Hyderabad and Kolkata. Seasonal demand remains balanced across Summer, Monsoon and Winter, indicating stable year-round business.

Recommendations

Increase conversion through remarketing, introduce loyalty programs, expand premium international packages, strengthen online acquisition, launch family bundles, improve marketing in weaker cities, upsell insurance and hotels, and create personalized offers for non-buyers.

Conclusion

The dashboard shows a digitally strong travel business with excellent opportunities in conversion optimization, premium offerings, and customer retention.
